ABOUT THIS RELEASE

Previously: Training and Education Experience, Australia, 1993 and 1997 -- Sample File on CD-ROM

Previously: How Workers Get Their Training, Australia, 1989 -- Sample File on CD-ROM

Provides confidentialised unit record data from the 2001 Survey of Education, Training and Information Technology for all persons aged 15-64. Data provided focuses on level and field of educational attainment; participation in education and training; work history, including occupation and industry; current study; completed qualifications; details of training courses completed; training outcomes; access to education and training and employer support; access to education and training; unmet demand, and home access to a computer and the Internet.

Level and field of educational attainment, current study etc will be based on the new Australian Standard Classification of Education (ASCED) 1272.0 which has replaced a number of educational classifications used prior to 2001.

There were similar releases in respect of 1989, 1993 and 1997 data.
